Free Courses in Agriculture for Students Over 16

In an advertisement appearing in this paper last week it was incorrectly announced that free courses in Agriculture and Home Economics would be given at the Olds and Varsity Schools. All Agriculture to boys and girls under sixteen years age. Obviously this should have read: OVER sixteen years.

PROPOSED TO FORM CANADIAN WHEAT INSTITUTE

Proposals for forming the Canadian Wheat Institute as a national body to conduct work in the interests of Canadian wheat were endorsed by the annual convention of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce which met in Winnipeg on September 11th, 12th, and 13th. This followed an address by Mr. R. S. Law, president of the United Grain Growers Ltd., in the course of which he dealt with the need for putting a new force behind the sale of Canadian wheat and showed how through the proposed Institute, advertising, commercial research, scientific research and other efforts might be brought to bear towards the enlargement of outlets for Canadian wheat.

Mr. Law spoke on the subject "Wheat from the National Standpoint" and much of his address was devoted to emphasizing the national importance of the wheat industry of Canada. In emphasizing that fact Mr. Law said: "It should be realized that growing wheat for export has been part of the basic policy of Canada for a third of a century. Upon it is founded the immigration policy of this country, and the whole project of opening up western Canada upon it was predicted a large part of the country's railway construction and the building of canals and harbors. That western Canada should be opened up, that people from other parts of the country and from other countries should be invited to come in, in that financial institutions should pour their resources into the prairies and that factories should be built to supply the needs of farmers who were to grow wheat—all that was part of the national determination of the country since the beginning of the century." In concluding his address Mr. Law said: "The welfare of the western farmers, the welfare of Western Canada, and to a large extent the welfare of Dominion of Canada must continue to depend upon our ability to maintain large outlets for the wheat grown in the west, and that in turn may necessitate upon our ability to keep a national understanding and maintain a national outlook on our wheat problem."

The resolution which was subsequently passed by the convention of the East Milo News

The East Milo Juniors held their annual banquet on Friday, Oct. 12 and it proved to be a decided success. Mr. Wayne Monner acted as Master of Ceremonies. The speakers were Mr. V. J. Bertrand, Advisor of East Milo Jrs.; Miss Margaret Wright Vice-President of the Jr. U.F.A.; Jack Dushel, Jr., Director for McLeod Constituency and Miss Mary Shield.

The farmers of the Milo telephone district are contemplating forming a mutual company to buy the telephones, and canvassing for subscribers to the new company is under way now. Mr. Bill Osler and Mr. Benchman were elected temporary officers.

Don't forget the dance in the Liberty School on Oct. 19th, in aid of the organ fund. Ladies bring lunch and gents 25¢, or what you will.

The next meeting of the East Milo Jrs. is to be held on Saturday, Oct. 20th, in either the Liberty or the Pioneer School.

Chamber of Commerce read as follows: "Realising the importance of Canadian wheat production to the prosperity of Canada, the chamber has been gratified to learn that those directly interested in the production and marketing of Canadian wheat have under consideration the organization of a Canadian Wheat Institute as a national body to stimulate the marketing and use of wheat in the markets of the world. The chamber extends its closest co-operation to this endeavor."

Ladies and Gentlemen

The Arrowwood U.F.A. invite you to a meeting in Phillips' Hall on Wednesday, October 24th, at 8 p.m.

O. L. McPherson, of Vulcan, will be the speaker.

Matters of vital interest to every resident of this community will be discussed.

Good Attendance at the Little Bow U.F.A. Convention at Vulcan

On Saturday last the annual convention of the Little Bow U.F.A. Association was held in Oddfellow's Hall at Vulcan. Delegates were present from fourteen locals, ten U.F.A. and four U.F.W.A. The convention was called on short notice and the attendance was not as large as last year, but the enthusiasm of the organization was as much evident as before. Tea and bussey soups were listed one in the morning and the other in the afternoon, but increased business and important speakers necessitated the holding of an evening session. Speakers of the day were Mr. O. L. McPherson, Hon. R. Love, Norman Smith, Sidney May and A. Riley.

Most of the delegates registered before noon and were called to order by the v-president, J. J. Dunn.

Moved by Mr. Miller and seconded by Mr. Bertrand "that the committees be named from the chairmen." Carried.

The chairman then appointed Mr. Miller and Mr. Sinclair as the credentials committee and Messrs. Sims, Russell and McRoberts as the resolutions committee.

Delegates then adjourned until 2 p.m.

The afternoon session was under way at 2 o'clock. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. Paul Fredericks. The first order of business was the election of a chairman. Mr. Fredericks was elected. Routine business followed, the confirmation of committees appointed in the forenoon session; the reading of the minutes of the last meeting. Mr. Love then asked why the resolutions passed at the last meeting were not sent to an annual convention. The secretary replied if they were not it was because the matter was overlooked. The minutes were then adopted as read.

Reading of report—it was moved and seconded that the report be adopted.

Moved by Mr. Love that all U.F.A. members be given the privilege of the floor. Carried.

The resolutions committee called for resolutions on hand.

Mr. McPherson was called upon to speak. He urged the return of the old-time U.F.A. spirit and the necessity of united action, saying if the party split into several different systems of thought then we are going to split our fighting forces into different units and are going to be defeated as a U.F.A. organization. Work within organization to attain your ends.

Centre your interests and your efforts in maintaining your organization, and whatever changes you propose economically or otherwise you will get them through this organization if you get them. Use your own best judgment as to what the organization should accomplish. There was intense interest through his entire speech which covered a wide range of facts.

Buffalo Hill News

Ted Goransson, who farms the R.E. House place, purchased an Essex car last week, which looks as though farming pays, when done the way of this enterprising farmer.

Starting's threshing outfit started up threshing last Thursday, Oct. 11th, completing a 15-day run, which required a much more extended time, due to the weather. There are many surprises in threshing, both to the farmer, with an unexpected high or low yield, and likewise to the threshers, experiencing mostly low grades. This was due to too much Alberta sunshine and our unwelcome guest, the grasshopper. But the one on the crew experiencing the biggest surprise was the culinary artist, Miss Alberta Hardwick, of Lomond.

At the supper time, the last night, as the men entered for the meal, Jim Craig came forward and on behalf of the crew like-wise, presented Miss Hardwick with a nice carving set as a small token of appreciation of her efforts to satisfy the inmates.

This gift was very appropriate in view of her commanding appearance to Mr. Earl Armstrong of Lomond. Miss Hardwick was completely taken by surprise at this unexpected gift, and thanked the crew for their kindness, thus ending one of those little pleasantries which the west is noted for. We wish them the best of luck.

A Visitation Tour

Written by John Wiand

On Monday morning, Sept. 17th, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Burger and myself left Arrowwood in their car on a visitation tour.

We visited 22 homes and institutions in different communities between here and Edmonton.

As follows: Carseland, Kathryn, Irricana, Acme, Morrin, Stettler, Red Deer, Sylvan Lake, Bentley, Lacombe, Ponoka. In making this tour we drove 455 miles. We were in a great deal of rain and some mud. But we missed the snow.

On Thursday Mr. Burgers returned to Bentley to visit their friends. At 4 p.m. I boarded the train for points beyond Peace River. I arrived at Grimshaw at 9:30 a.m. As I gazed out from the town the crops seemed to be very good. But no threshing was done yet.

There had been much rain ever since early summer. No rain

More Than a Grain Company

Every Alberta Pool elevator may be viewed as a sentinel guarding the marketing interests of grain growers in that district.

It also may be looked upon as a link connecting various parts of a great farm movement.

It is an emblem of a determined effort on the part of the farming population whose objective is a greater measure of social justice and economic security for the men, women and children engaged in Canada's basic industry.

A MORNING WITH MRS. ECONOMY

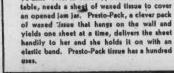

8 a.m. She makes up the children's lunches. "I wrap the sandwiches in Paper-Sel Heavy Waxed Paper," she says, "because I know that if you wrap them in regular paper I use Paper-Sel from the green box a dozen times each day—for filling cake boxes, keeping extra crisp and preventing food from becoming soggy."

9 a.m. She starts her duties—but she no longer has laundry, duty clothes, or uses Wonder-Powder. She uses a few drops of soap and polishes all in one simple operation. Wonder-Powder is saving her most valuable time. "I never have time to wash the clothes," she says, "and keep my furniture brilliant all the time."

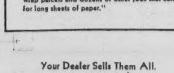

10 a.m. Mrs. Economy, while at her kitchen table, needs a sheet of waxed paper to cover some bacon. She reaches for Paper-Sel. "I use a sheet of waxed paper instead of waxed paper to hang the bacon and yields one sheet at a time, defining the sheet boundaries to her and the bacon it will be held in place by the waxed paper.

11 a.m. She prepares carrots and onions for dinner. But she doesn't use two pots. She uses Paper-Sel. "I wrap the carrots in Paper-Sel Parchment, puts both in the one pot, and gets them done in half the time," she says. "The vegetables are richly delicious in its own juices and taste like they were just picked."

12 noon. Her kitchen need is overdone. She does that job with Handi-Roll, a 55-foot roll of paper. "Handi-Roll," she says, "is ever so helpful. I use it to line doors, cover shelves, wrap packages, and even to roll out old sheets for long sheets of paper."

The young people of the United Church Sewing Circle met at the home of Mrs. Nissen on Saturday, Oct. 12th, seven members being present. The meeting was opened by singing, "There's a Song in the Air" followed by a prayer by Shirley Taylor. Grace Board then read the minutes of the last meeting, which were approved. Mrs. Parnell made a motion that we buy the register for the Sunday School, and a motion was made by Inger Nissen, seconded by Gladys Leonard that Mrs. Parnell take charge of it.

Mrs. Leith reported that she had purchased some goods for the girls to work on the different stitches on. A prize to be given later for the best work.

The girls are also making articles for a bazaar to be held later on. The meeting then adjourned. A short program consisting of recitations by Bobby Nissen, and a song by Gladys Leonard and Shirley Taylor, was much enjoyed.

main highway further up, along Lesser Slave Lake. The police man gave me hope, that some of them would be getting loose and would help me along my journey. But if not I was waiting three days until the next train. The ferrymen said there was no traffic and little hope. But in an hour three cars came and one of them carried me to Colington. All three cars were comparatively new, yet they were in a semi-wrecked condition, because of the hardships of the highway on this trip.

At Colington I walked about 22 miles through thinly settled country, both and muskeg finding the families I was hunting. Friday morning I left Colington on the bus for Edmonton then on for Calgary by train. I stopped over night at the Didsbury Bible School.

When I went to the depot before 5:00 a.m. Saturday I went into the waiting room and turned on the light. Soon a man came in, dressed in old clothes it proved to be the local policeman in plain clothes for the night.

Four or five others of his profession, also disguised, had been assembled from elsewhere on a tip from Calgary. One looked me over through the window from his auto and two more came into the depot to size me up. The local man expressed great disappointment that the night was past and they had been unable to close the trap on anyone. As far as I know that was the most policemen ever on my trail.

On to Calgary. Shopping. Rugby game. And home with Mr. Fred Miller and family. Mr. Bowman kindly brought my freight and baggage.

Says Sask. Wholesale Corp. Used Sensational High Pressure Advertising Ballyhoo

Investigating the Army and Navy Stores operated by three brothers, Samuel J. Cohen, of Regina; Harry Cohen, of Edmonton, and Joseph Cohen, of Moose Jaw, it was shown before the Stevens Committee at Ottawa that the company is operating a retail business in Regina, Edmonton and Vancouver. In addition to that they are operating a mail order business in all of these places and furthermore, they are operating a wholesale business, known as Saskatchewan Wholesale Corporation, Reg'd., but not limited. The latter carries no special stock. The orders that come to the wholesale business are filled out of the mail order or retail stock. The Saskatchewan Wholesale Corporation issues fall and winter catalogues and a mid-winter catalogue.

"This issue is the catalogue and then they purchase, lines the same as their catalogue, if possible," stated the author before the committee. "They ship the goods to their customers they fill the catalogue from the goods that they have as near as possible. There is a certain amount of substitution, a good deal of substitution, and the explanation of that is that they substitute at least as good or better lines and they have a guarantee of money back if goods are not satisfactory."

Witness presented an announcement that had been sent out to the trade by the wholesale company in question. The announcement was sent out on April 5, 1931. It stated:

ANNOUNCEMENT

No need to place for fall and winter. We've bought $30,000 worth of staple, reasonable merchandise at right cash prices for you and thousands of others. No need for you to gamble on the ups and downs of the market—we do it for you.

When fall and winter roll around ours cash with order wholesale prices will place you out of the touch of competition, big or small. Requirements at reasonable prices, regardless of the advancing market—and you are assured of huge stocks to draw from daily if you wish.

Mr. Sommerville: "Had there been my purchase of $30,000 of merchandise or did they ever purchase $1,000,000 worth of merchandise for such purposes?"

Mr. Johnston: "Not for any such purpose as that. They purchased it over a year possibly."

Question: "Over a year in their retail business, in their various stores, but for no such purposes for any wholesale business?"

Mr. Johnston: "That is actually 50 per cent more than a year's turnover."

The Chairman: "In their retail stores?"

Mr. Johnston: "Yes."

Mr. Sommerville: "Do those instances that you have given us fairly indicate the kind of advertising being done by this firm on the basis of the business and the assets you have already indicated in the financial statement filed?"

Mr. Johnston: "Oh, yes, that is indicative of their whole policy, high pressure, sensational type" of advertising right through, which is in most cases misleading."

Mr. Sommerville: "Just regular ballyhoo."

Mr. Johnston: "Yes, Right through—" The General Merchant of Canada.

Grading of GARNET WHEAT

In accordance with an amendment to the Canadian Grain Act passed in the 1934 session of the Parliament of Canada, separate grades will be established for Garnet Wheat, effective August 1, 1935.

All farmers should have this in mind in preserving and procuring seed for the sowing of their 1935 wheat crop.

FEDERAL GRAIN LIMITED

WORLD WHEAT SITUATION

Total World Annual Average Production vs China and Russia 3,600 million bushels—with China and Russia leading the world. The wheat industry has suffered from three important factors. Firstly, in 1932 an extraordinary yield per acre occurred in many countries. For various reasons the surplus was not absorbed, but, unfortunately, periodically, the depression substantially decreased the consumption of wheat based per capita in the world. Thirdly, because even with all its low price the production of wheat was less of a factor in the world's economy than it had been in the last few years. The wheat produced throughout the world tended to change its acreage formerly devoted to the latter product to that of wheat production.

As a result of the above factors (and this now seems to be slowly happening) again slight the reverse of the above applies will take place, which will, no doubt, tend to raise wheat prices to, and go down to a reasonable level for producer.
